Fish Friers Review Magazine - Subscription Application

The Fish Friers Review magazine is the members journal of the National Federation of Fish Friers and is distributed to all members of the Federation as a benefit of membership. Membership of the Federation is strictly restricted to individuals and companies who are proprietors of fried fish businesses.

Individuals and companies who do not qualify for membership of the Federation but who have a bona-fide interest in the fish frying trade may obtain the magazine on subscription at an annual rate of £55.00. Applications for subscription include full details of the applicant's interest in the fish frying trade.
